DYCUSBURG

Died at his home one mile from Dycusburg, Feb. 28, 1907. Edgie Gregory Sr, in the sixiy-seventh year of his life. Mr. Gregory was for many years a representative citiyears ago he was married to Miss. Jennie Yancy in her sixteenth, year and who survives him. His five children are Messrs Claude, Edgie, Chas. Roy and Miss Lucy. The burial was at the Yancy family cemetery, on the afternoon of March 1st, Mrs. Finley, of Marion, sister to Mr. Gregory arrived at his bedside a few moments after his death. Mrs. Gregory whose levely traits of character have endowed her to a wide circle of friends and relatives has universal sympathy, and well she may rely upon the affection of her lovely daughter and noble sons for comfort in her declining years.

Selma Williams, daughter of Mrs. Gid Hill, aged about twelve years died at the home of her grand parents three a. m. and was buried at the Dycusburg cemetery the following afternoon. The day before her death she was taken violently ill of congestion of the brain and was soon beyond remedy. The mother is greatly be-

The News-No Pure Drug Cough Cure Laws would be needed, if all in Northem. Cough Cures were like Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure is-and has been for 20 years. The National Law now requires that if any poisons enter into a cough gone to horse trading on a large scail. mixture, it must be printed on the label or package.

For this reason mothers, and others, should insist on having Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. No poison-marks on Dr. Shoop's labels - and none in the medicine, else it must by law be on the label. Ynd it's not only safe, but it is said to be by those that know it best, a truly remarkable cough remedy. Take no chance, particularly with our children. Insist on having Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. Compare carefully the Dr. Shoop package with others and see. No poison-marks there! You can always be on the safe side by demanding Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. Simple refuse to day. accept any other.
